

IMPORTANT SAFETY WARNING

Belkin Portable Wireless Charger + Stand Special Edition WIZ003 Product Recall

Belkin has initiated a voluntary recall of all units of the Belkin Portable Wireless Charger + Stand Special Edition WIZ003, and will be offering a full refund to all purchasers.

A manufacturing defect in the power supply unit can cause the charger to malfunction and overheat, posing fire and shock hazards.

No injuries or property damage have been reported, and no other Belkin wireless chargers or any other Belkin products are affected by this recall.

If you have purchased the Belkin Portable Wireless Charger + Stand Special Edition WIZ003, it is important that you immediately stop using it, disconnect it from any power supply, and contact us for further instructions.
